The Fight Between Arizona Candidates.

Four in the Field for Governor.

L. C. Hughes, Farish, Dennis and H. A. Hughes.

One of Them Will Surely Get the Plum.

PARKER FOR MARSHAL

Dennis and Dr. Hughes as Dark Horses.

L. C. Hughes Confers With Hoke Smith.

A Nomination Certain to Be Made Within a Few Days—Other Places Not Yet Considered.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—[Special.]—This has been a busy day for the Arizona colony, and though no appointments have been decided upon, yet the stock of several candidates has been up and down just as the tide ebbs. A number of gentlemen hailing from Arizona, mostly with petitions in their pockets, have called upon the president during the past few days and each has appeared to believe that in his own particular case the opposition was not in it, so to speak.

There is a rumor today, however, among the members of the inner circle that Ben Parker, chairman of the Democratic Territorial Central committee, has the call for the marshalship and that this has injured the chances of L. C. Hughes for governor. Today the wires were kept hot between this city and the territory of Arizona, and numerous telegrams were received from members of the territorial legislature and others endorsing Foster Dennis for governor, while a great many more were also received by members of the Texas delegation, Mark Smith and other friends of Dr. H. A. Hughes, urging the appointment of that gentleman as governor.

Thos. E. Farish, another candidate for governor, has strong backing in the New York, Kansas, Missouri and California delegations and is considered a very strong candidate. Ex-Governor Zalick, who was delegated by the Arizona Democracy to fix a slate and have the Republicans bounced, is fighting Farish to the teeth and is now said to be for Dennis and has during the day been in constant telegraphic communication with the friends of that gentleman in Arizona.

Zalick came here ostensibly in the interest of L. C. Hughes and was followed a day or two later by John O. Dunbar, an Arizona newspaper man, also for Hughes. But it now looks to your correspondent as if L. C. Hughes' candidacy had been abandoned by them in the interest of Dennis, on the principle of anything to beat Farish. However, a prominent senator who is a close friend of Gov. Zalick intimated to a party of senators in the hearing of your correspondent that Dennis has really been the choice of Zalick and Dunbar from the beginning and that instead of L. C. Hughes it was not hard for them to take up another candidate in the alleged interest of harmony.

L. C. Hughes, however, does not appear to be discouraged and indeed he seems to have the ear of Secretary Hoke Smith at all times and was closeted with that gentleman for over an hour today to the great discomfiture of the friends of other Arizona candidates. He is the only candidate on the ground, and is handling his case with marked ability. He appears to have the confidence of both the president and the secretary of the interior and he is beyond doubt a most important factor in the race.

The fight has now fairly settled down to L. C. Hughes and Thos. E. Farish as the original candidates, both well backed, and Foster Dennis and Dr. H. A. Hughes as dark horses who are forwarding their endorsements by wire and wheeling their friends into line.

It is now conceded that the appointment will not go outside of the territory, and that the name of one of these four candidates will be sent to the senate within a few days.

The names of candidates for places aside from governor and marshal have not yet been considered, and these appointments will materially affect the others as to location in the territory.

OPPOSE BI-METALISM.

The Attitude of England at the Berlin Conference.

LONDON, March 17.—[Associated Press.]—In the House of Commons this evening, Sir William Houldsworth, British delegate at the Brussels monetary conference, criticized the conduct of the British delegates at the conference and asked what would be the attitude of the government should the proceedings in Brussels be resumed. Sir Wm. Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, replied that the delegates would be instructed to oppose any bi-metallic scheme proposed at the conference.

A BOYCOTT.

Russian Money Lenders Are the Victims.

LONDON, March 17.—[Associated Press.]—The London Prusso-Jewish committee sent every Jewish banker and bank director, bank manager, stock broker and agent of the exchange in Europe a passionate appeal to combine in boycotting Russian loans and in boycotting trade in Russian securities generally. The appeal is significant in connection with the fact that the Russian government has just issued a ukase providing for an internal loan and Russian bankers are endeavoring to extend relations with money centres outside of Russia.

WHOLESALE POISONING.

Several Members of a Family Die From the Effects of Arsenic.

MADISON, Indiana, March 17.—[Associated Press.]—Last Wednesday Miss Eva Ross died from the effects of poison taken, it was thought, with suicidal intent. Today her mother died in a similar manner and it is reported that James Ross, a brother of Eva, died in Anderson, Ind., of poison. Two other sons were attacked yesterday and cannot live. Large quantities of arsenic were found in the stomach of Eva Ross and her mother's body will be examined and the case fully investigated.

BAD INDIANS.

Mr. Cleveland's Wards in the Northwest.

Inspired by Firewater They Are Making Trouble at White Earth Agency.

WHITE EARTH AGENCY, March 17.—[Associated Press.]—Considerable excitement was created here today by a drunken vagrant Indian named Ah Nungish, better known as Michael Parker, assaulting E. H. Beaulieu, judge of the court of Indian offenses, and then shooting at Simon Lagard. It appears that Parker having been provided with an abundance of firewater by another Indian named John Rock, who was returning from the Minneapolis court, attempted to force an admittance to Mr. Beaulieu's house and on being refused endeavored to burst the door. Mr. Beaulieu, who is a feeble old man, came out and persuaded him to go away, but he stubbornly refused, and grabbing hold of the old man bore him to the ground and proceeded to beat and choke him and had not timely assistance arrived fatal results would have followed. Sam Lagard, hearing Mr. Beaulieu's feeble cry for help, hurried to the scene and succeeded in driving the brute away. Shortly afterward Lagard had occasion to go in the direction of the village again. He met Parker and an altercation followed, during which Parker, drawing a revolver, fired at his victim. At this Lagard struck his assailant, knocking the revolver out of his hand into the snow and hurried away. By this time the agency police had been notified. They hurried to the scene and soon had the brute in the agency lockup.

The recreant element whose miserable impudence has tended to degrade the morals of the reservation and which has been permitted unlimited sway for the past several years will undoubtedly meet a formidable disapproval in the person of the recently appointed agent, Maj. Chas. A. Ruffee, whose strict methods of conducting agency affairs will tolerate no indulgence to any class of disturbing element within his jurisdiction.

SAVED AT THE LAST SECOND.

A Choctaw Indian's Dramatic Escape from the Law.

CADDO, I. T. March 17.—[Associated Press.]—Elias Loring, the full blood Indian under sentence of death by shooting, was reprieved in most dramatic fashion at the very last moment last Friday, just as the sheriff was about to fire the fatal shot.

When the officer and his prisoner reached the court ground in the afternoon, Loring was given a few minutes to converse with his two wives and kiss them and the children. He bade them meet him "in the happy hunting grounds," and then when the sheriff told him that his time was up and he must die, his wives again kissed him and told him to die bravely.

A coffin was then brought and placed by his side and the preparations for the last scene began. Loring was stripped to his waist and given some purple ink to paint a heart on his left breast. It represented a heart very closely and was about the size of a man's thumb nail. Evidently he had been practicing on it as there was a dim picture of one already on his breast.

The doomed man then sat down on his coffin and his friends gathered

WASHINGTON.

News From the Great Political Mecca.

Commissioner Raum's Resignation Accepted

Former Cleveland Postmasters Need Not Apply.

The Hawaiian Princes Entertained at Luncheon—Mr. Blount to Sail on the Rusk.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—[Associated Press.]—The secretary of the interior today accepted the resignation of Green B. Raum, as commissioner of pensions, and Andrew Davidson is designated to take charge of the office until an appointment is made by the president as Raum's successor.

Secretary Carlisle this morning declined to affirm or deny a statement that the revenue cutter Rusk had been ordered to hold herself in readiness to carry Blount to Hawaii. It is unofficially stated, however, that the cutter will be placed at Blount's disposal on his arrival and that unless arrangements can be made for the Pacific mail steamer which sails for China on the 23d instant to touch at Honolulu, Blount will sail on the Rusk. It will take the vessel about a week to make the trip.

A Newspaper Man Appointed.

Mr. Cleveland today sent to the senate his batch of presidential postmasters and first was that of Robert B. Brown to be postmaster at Meadville, Pa. Mr. Brown in addition to being the first appointee to a postoffice, has at the outset, broken the rule said to have been laid down by the postoffice department that newspaper men could not be appointed to offices. Mr. Brown is the owner and editor of The Messenger, a Democratic weekly published at Meadville. Mr. Brown has also shown his ability as a hustler. The Republican incumbent of the office was appointed almost four years ago by Mr. Harrison and about three weeks before his term was out, Mr. Harrison sent the name of W. S. Rose to the senate for the place.

Mr. Brown heard of this and came to Washington post haste, armed with letters of introduction to Democratic senators. He succeeded in having the nomination held up until the Republican administration went out of power and then used his influence to secure his own nomination.

New York Senators.

Senator Murphy, of New York, was asked tonight if the report is true that he would attempt to prevent the confirmation of President Cleveland's New York appointments. There is no truth in it whatever, replied the senator. "How about the confirmation of Robert E. Maxwell and Edward B. Whitney?" The New York Senators will do nothing to delay their confirmation, on the contrary, they will aid in having them confirmed.

A New Deal.

Postmaster General Bissel stated today that whenever there is a contest for any postoffice, any person who held the office under Cleveland's former administration is not to be considered. He further stated that he gave full power to this rule be applied to fourth class postoffices, and that he and not the president is responsible for it.

Fewer Callers.

There is a noticeable falling off in the number of callers at the white house this morning. Notwithstanding this fact, there are enough to keep everyone busy, from the president to the usher and doorkeepers.

The Princess Entertained.

The Princess Kaiulani and suite were entertained at luncheon today on the receiving ship Dale, stationed at the Washington navy yard, by the commanding officer and Mrs. Huston.

STUDENTS MAKE TROUBLE.

They Parade the Streets of Dublin

Bearing the British Ensign and an Exciting Scene Follows—The Disturbance Quelled.

LONDON, March 17.—[Associated Press.]—There was an exciting scene in Dublin today. After the Unionist meeting 300 Trinity collegians paraded in the streets bearing the British ensign. A large and menacing crowd followed, singing, "Tear it up," and singing, "Boys of Wexford." The students were armed with cudgels and repulsed the rushes of their opponents who, however, seized the flag. At Grafton street a sharp struggle occurred until the flag was recaptured and the collegians entered the college. There were several skirmishes later in the evening. The police finally disposed of the rival factions.

around him to bid him goodbye. A blindfold was put over his eyes and Sheriff Johnson stepped off fifteen paces and raised his Winchester, a 44-caliber, but before he had time to shoot he heard a whoop, and looking around he saw a mounted courier coming at full speed.

The courier was J. R. McClure, Governor Jones' light horseman, with a stay of execution issued by Governor Jones, ordering that Loring be tried again in the circuit court.

When Loring was notified as to what had happened he smiled and said "Chickama," which means in English "good."

THE STRANGLER.

He Offers to Wrestle Farmer Burns for $1000 at Decorah.

DECORAH, Iowa, March 17.—[Associated Press.]—The Decorah Club this morning received a telegram from Evan Lewis, the strangler, to the effect that he would accept their offer of a $1000 purse for a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match between him and Farmer Burns for $1000 a side and the championship of the world, articles of agreement for which were to have been signed in Chicago today. This afternoon the club wired him that the money had been deposited, the match to take place in Decorah within 90 days. Burns has not yet been heard from by the club, but his friends in this city say that he will be willing to have the match occur here.

HAWAIIAN DELAYS.

An Endeavor to Annex to Great Britain.

The Better Element of All Classes Favor Annexation to the United States.

HONOLULU, March 9.—[Associated Press.]—The Hawaiian Patriotic League has forwarded by the steamer Alameda, the following telegram to President Cleveland:

HONOLULU, March 8 1893
President Cleveland,
Washington:
The Patriotic League Union of the native associations hope for justice, and that investigation will be made here before the decision as to annexation.
[Signed] J. A. CUMMINGS,
Honorary President.
JOSEPH SAWYER,
President.

The annexationists were greatly disappointed when they learned from the Belgic, which put in here March 9, that the annexation treaty had not yet been adopted by the United States senate.

Secretary Foster's letter to Minister Stevens is taken as a rebuke to the latter by the anti-annexationists, but the United States flag has not yet been hauled down. Stevens himself says that Foster's letter from logical standpoint is an approval of his course. Minister Stevens specifically denies that he in any way hastened or brought about the revolution. Stevens thinks that if the United States delays in annexation England will be forced by Canada to protest. The minister says that all but rowdies and a few interested persons of prominence are in favor of annexation, that the prominent people of all the islands assure him there is a sentiment in favor of annexation among the better class of natives. The delay on the part of the United States has strengthened the Royalists in their opposition to annexation and they have held numerous meetings at which a proposition appealing to England has been discussed.

The Hawaiian Civil Rights League has been organized to secure suffrage in case of annexation. The Japanese man-of-war Kongo, went to Hilo last Thursday to quell a reported disturbance among the Japanese laborers. The United States ship Alliance, followed and the rumor arose that there were serious international complications. It transpired, however, that the Alliance merely went to Hilo for target practice.

British Minister Woodhouse on February 23, sent a note to the provisional government protesting against any disfranchisement of natives. President Dole in reply asked the British to furnish a precedent where Great Britain in case of annexation of foreign territory in the Pacific had granted suffrage.
